

INTERACTIVE BROKERS GROUP, INC.

AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

ORGANIZATION.

This Charter governs the operations of the Audit Committee (the “Committee”) of Interactive Brokers Group, Inc. (the “Company”). The Committee shall review and reassess this Charter at least annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Board of Directors (the “Board”) for approval. The Committee shall be appointed by the Board and shall consist of at least three directors, each of whom is independent of management and the Company. The chair of the Committee shall be designated by a vote of the Board or, if the Board so chooses, the members of the Committee may select a chair by majority vote. With respect to each Committee member, the Board shall affirmatively determine that the member satisfies the requirements for “independence” imposed by the NASDAQ Stock Market or other appropriate governing body, Section 10A(m)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), and all rules and regulations promulgated thereunder by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) (including that the Company may avail itself of the “phase-in period” contained in NASDAQ Stock Market Rule 4350(a)(5) and Exchange Act Rule 10A-3(b)(1)(iv)(A) with respect to the Committee). Each Committee member must be financially literate, as defined by the Board in its business judgment, or must be able to become financially literate within a reasonable period of time after his or her appointment to the Committee. The Committee chair must have accounting or related financial management expertise, as defined by the Board in its business judgment.

Determination of the true, actual and effective independence of any Committee member that has or had some relationship with the Company, will be made by the Board in accordance with the requirements of the NASDAQ Stock Market and the SEC, with weight given to both prudent principles and “appearances.” The Board shall confirm annually the independence of each member of the Committee and determine whether at least one member qualifies as a “financial expert” under applicable SEC rules.

The Committee may invite to any of its meetings other directors, members of Company management and such other persons as it deems appropriate in order to carry out its responsibilities. The Committee will keep minutes of its meetings, will make such minutes available to the full Board for its review and will report its actions to the Board on a regular basis including any recommendations it deems appropriate. The affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Committee present at the time of such vote will be required to approve any action of the Committee. Subject to the requirements of any applicable law, regulation or rule, any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by all members of the Committee.

STATEMENT OF POLICY.

The Committee shall provide assistance to the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibility to the stockholders, potential stockholders, the investment community and others relating to: (i) the integrity of the Company's financial statements and the financial reporting process; (ii) the systems of internal accounting and financial controls; (iii) performance of the Company's internal audit function and independent auditors; (iv) the independent auditor's qualifications and independence; (v) the annual independent audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements; (vi) the legal compliance and ethics programs established by Company management and the Board; and (vii) the Company's compliance with ethics policies and legal policies and regulatory requirements. In so doing, it is the responsibility of the Committee to maintain free and open communication among the Committee, the independent auditors, the internal auditors, and Company management. In discharging its oversight role, the Committee is empowered to investigate any matter brought to its attention with full access to all books, records, facilities, and personnel of the Company and the power to retain at the expense of the Company independent outside counsel or other experts or advisers as it determines necessary to carry out its duties.

RESPONSIBILITIES AND PROCESSES.

The primary responsibility of the Committee is to oversee the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board and report the results of its activities to the Board. Management is responsible for the preparation, presentation, and integrity of the Company's financial statements and for the appropriateness of the accounting principles and reporting policies that are used by the Company therein. For their part, the independent auditors are responsible for auditing the Company's annual financial statements and for reviewing the Company's unaudited interim financial statements. The Committee in carrying out its responsibilities believes its policies and procedures should remain flexible, in order to best react to changing conditions and circumstances. The Committee shall take the appropriate actions to set the overall corporate "tone" for quality financial reporting, sound business risk practices, and ethical behavior.

The following shall be the principal recurring processes of the Committee. The processes are set forth as a guide with the understanding that the Committee may supplement them as appropriate.

The Committee shall pre-approve all audit and non-audit services provided by the independent auditors and shall not engage the independent auditors to perform any non-audit services proscribed by law or regulation. The Committee may delegate its pre-approval authority to any member of the Committee. The actions taken by any Committee member to whom such pre-approval authority is
